

Streets of Tanasbourne to host holiday party, tree lighting event

Monday, November 23, 2009

The Hillsboro Argus

The Streets of Tanasbourne will host their first holiday party and tree lighting ceremony from 4 to 6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 27. The event will feature Ebenezer Scrooge and the other stars of the Bag and Baggage production of "A Christmas Carol" as the official tree lighters.

"The evening will have a little something for everyone," said Matthew Klutznick, general manager at The Streets of Tanasbourne.

In addition to the Charles Dickens characters, the event will also feature free pictures with Santa, free hot chocolate and cider, free gift wrapping and free cookie decorating for the kids.

Bag and Baggage Productions is a professional theater company located in Hillsboro. For more information about Bag and Baggage Productions, show times and where to buy tickets, go to www.bagnbaggage.org.

The Streets of Tanasbourne is just off of Northwest Cornell Road and Stucki Avenue in Hillsboro.

The Streets of Tanasbourne is a 400,000 sq. ft. lifestyle shopping center with a variety of shopping and dining options.